

Devotional for “Restoring Sight”
Sunday, October 28, 2018

During your prayer and meditation time, consider the story of Jesus and Bartimaeus in the Mark 10:46-52.

Then, consider these questions:

- ❖ In what aspect of my life do I currently need healing (spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional)?
  - List all which come to mind.

- ❖ Am I being compassionate with myself as I do what I can to heal? If “Yes,” what am I doing? If “No,” why not?

- ❖ What obstacles have I placed in my way which block my healing and “blind” me to other relationships, possibilities, paths of opportunities?
  - List all which apply.

- ❖ When I consider my faith in God and the Presence and Power of God within me, what steps can I take right now to restore my sight and see new ways of living?
  - List as many steps as come to mind.

Be gentle with yourself as you take as much time and space as you need to contemplate the text, feel your feelings, and allow new ways of being to unfold. Also, consider keeping this affirmation in a sacred place so you can refer to it again, as you celebrate how you’ve healed.
