

Devotional for
“A Splendid Peace”
Sunday, December 9, 2018

This week, during your prayer and meditation time, contemplate these words in the ancient text of Baruch 5:1, 3: “Dress yourself in the dignity {divinity} of God’s glory forever. God will show your splendor everywhere.”

Then, consider these statements:

- ❖ I feel dressed in God’s glory when:

I do not feel dressed in God’s glory when:

---

- Be as specific as you can, listing what applies to your life now.

- ❖ I feel splendid when:                      I do not feel splendid when:

Now, consider the 4 aspects (rooms) of your being, the House of Self:

- ❖ How do your lists invite you to clean up, renovate, and/or revitalize your House of Self – all aspects of your being – so you feel at peace in your life?
    - Use as many sheets of paper as you need, perhaps 1 sheet for each aspect (room), to note what actions you’ll take.
  - ❖ The Gift(s) of Advent I am receiving from this awareness is /are:

Be as specific as you can, listing what applies to your life now. Also, note the date, time, and /or place, as appropriate, that you received your gift.
